Echo & The Bunnymen, Horse's Head

A single rose
The curtains close
A stranger's clothes
Were all I found
The great unknown
The tightrope show
A world below
Don't look down
Don't look down
Don't look down

Horse's head found in a bed Broke the code and braved the weather Wore a gown of chestnut brown Finger's crossed that there's a heaven

Heaven heaven heaven heaven

Found a scroll
And ancient bones
A million ghosts
Were all around
The great unknown
The tightrope show
A world below
Don't look down
Don't look down
Don't look down

Horse's head found in a bed Broke the code and changed the weather Wore a gown of chestnut brown Finger's crossed that there's a heaven

Heaven heaven heaven

I found a scroll And ancient bones A million ghosts Were all around I found a scroll And ancient bones A million ghosts Were all around

Horse's head found in a bed Broke the code and braved the weather Wore a gown of chestnut brown Finger's crossed that there's a heaven
