

Echoboy, Circulation

Would you be so kind as just to let me in [under your skin]
circulate you're system with security with security

love is sometimes strange can cut you like a knife [take your life]
shape you into something you don't wish to be

I know i'm sometimes blind and I don't read the signs but deep inside
you know you'll always be my priority, my priority laughing with each other like we used to do

i'm coming home
circulate you're system with love, WITH LOVE

I gave you this time
a mountain to climb
an ocean to swim
a light that's so dim
and if truth be told
a heart so cold arms that won't hold still I want to come home
COME HOME
