

Echosmith, Diamonds

la la la la la
la la la la la
she just wants to come alive sick of waiting her whole life for time to be on her side faking smiles just to alright another day of lonely eyes but she's a diamond in a sea od pearls when are we gonna learn that we can change the world she's a diamond in a sea od pearls

la la la la la
la la la la la
la la la la la Thursday;s coffe whit room for doubt no surprise no one's figured it out she wants to hide irr somehow faking whispers, just to scream it out another day she's lonely way cuz she's a diamond in a sea od pearls
that we can change the world
that we can change the world
