

Ed Bruce, Ever, Never Lovin' You

It must be I have always loved you just never knew where I would find you
You've always been the one babe now that I've found you
I can't remember ever never lovin' you
There's may have been someone before you
But I can't recall because she wasn't more you
It's either you or none babe now that we're one
I can't imagine ever never lovin' you
I always knew how much I loved you
But up till now I didn't know you how could I show you
There's may have been someone before you
But I can't remember ever never lovin' you
I can't remember ever never lovin' you
I always knew how much I loved you...
