

Ed Sheeran, Colourblind

Utwór 'Colourblind' z albumu 'Subtract' od Ed Sheeran (premiera 5 maja 2023r.)

Kaleidoscope love, yeah, that is you and me
Forever changing, we make life interesting
Some days we're red and, some days we both ain't green
But I like the nights when we leave the canvas free

Grab a brush and see where the feeling may lead
Nothing is out of our reach
Your words are flecks in each pigment we need
Can we get started?

I keep falling, deeper and dark blue
Brighter than white
The wind goes, exploding
But I can't see nothing since you and your eyes
Maybe we'll just paint the night colourblind

In every spectrum, we find a million of pics
Connect the dots and everything in between
Mm, don't leave the moment, you turn it gold and leave
You take the dark away, and that's on easy feet

Picking our end, watch the shape change in the heart
From yellow, purple and green
Your words are flecks in each pigment we need
Can we get started?

I keep falling, deeper and dark blue
Brighter than white
The wind goes, exploding
But I can't see nothing since you and your eyes
Maybe we'll just paint the night colourblind
Mm-mm-mm
Maybe we'll just paint the night colourblind
