Ed Sheeran, Nancy Mulligan

I was twenty four years old when I met the woman I would call my own Twenty two grand kids now growing old, in the house that your brother brought ya On the summer day when I proposed, I made that wedding ring from dentist gold And I asked her father but her daddy said no You can't marry my daughter

She and I went on the run
Don't care about religion
I'm gonna marry the woman I love
Down by the Wexford border
She was Nancy Mulligan, and I was William Sheeran
She took my name and then we were one
Down by the Wexford border

Well I met at her Guys in the second world war She was working on a soldier's ward Never had I seen such beauty before The moment that I saw her Nancy was my yellow rose And we got married wearing borrowed clothes We got eight children now growing old Five sons and three daughters

She and I went on the run
Don't care about religion
I'm gonna marry the woman I love
Down by the Wexford border
She was Nancy Mulligan, and I was William Sheeran
She took my name and then we were one
Down by the Wexford border

From her snow white streak in her jet black hair Over sixty years I've been loving her Now we're sat by the fire, in our old armchairs You know Nancy I adore ya

From a farm boy born near Belfast town I never worried about the king and crown Cause I found my heart upon the southern ground There's no difference, I assure ya

She and I went on the run
Don't care about religion
I'm gonna marry the woman I love
Down by the Wexford border
She was Nancy Mulligan, and I was William Sheeran
She took my name and then we were one
Down by the Wexford border
