

Eddi Reader, The Shepherd's Song

Snow, a blanket of snow
Has fallen and I'm calling
For my little lost ones
Only in my arms you'll stay
Far from harm's way

Hold each other tight
You'll be alright
I was once a lost one
Out abandoned in the snow
But now I know

Near, I will appear
Besides you when you're falling
Oh my little lost ones
And in my loving arms you'll stay
Far from harm's way

And in my loving arms you'll stay
Far from harm's way
