

Eddie From Ohio, Woman Of Faith

i wake up, check my senses one two three four five number six missing again same old game of seek and hide i remember that old feeling it's tender to the touch just me and all my senses i don't need to think too much you know i tend to think too much

(chorus)

in times such as these we find ourselves in an old familiar place it's for times such as these when you've gotta believe that i married me a woman of faith

my old dog is smiling at me something by me passed my old dog grinning ear to ear shakes his head, starts to laugh i've been checking all four corners what makes him so wise
i forgot to look right in front of right in front in of my eyes

(chorus)

i wake up, check my senses, all have come around one two three four five all here six sleeps next to me, sleeping sound six is sleeping sound

(chorus)
