

Eddie Vedder, Far Behind

Take leave in conscious mind
Found myself to be so inclined
Why sleep in discontent...
For the price of companionship

My shadow runs with me
Underneath the big white sun
My shadow comes with me as we leave it all
We leave it all far behind

Ah, empty pockets will Allow a greater sense of wealth
Why contain yourself like any other book on a shelf

My shadow lays with me
Underneath the big white sun
My shadow stays with me as we leave it all
We leave it all far behind

Subtle voices in the wind,
And the truth they're telling
The world begins where the road ends
Watch me leave it all behind
Far behind...
