

Eddie Vedder, Someday We'll Go All The Way

Don't let anyone say that it's just a game.
For I've seen other teams, and it's never the same.
When you're born in Chicago, you're blessed and you're healed,
The first time you walk into Wrigley Field.

Our heroes with pinstripes and heroes in blue,
Give us the chance to feel like heroes too.
Whether we'll win and if we should lose,
We know someday we'll go all the way.
Yeah, someday we'll go all the way.

We are one with the Cubs,
With the Cubs we're in love.
Hold our heads high as the underdogs.
We are not fairweather, but foul weather fans.
Like brothers in arms, in the streets and the stands.
There's magic in the ivy and the old scoreboard.
The same one I stared at as a kid keeping score.
In a world full of greed, I could never want more.
And someday we'll go all the way.
Yeah, someday we'll go all the way.
Well, someday we'll go all the way.
Yeah, someday we'll go all the way.
Yeah, someday we'll go all the way.

And here's to the men and the legends we've known.
Teaching us faith and giving us hope.
United we stand, and united we'll fall,
Down to our knees the day we win it all.
Yeah Ernie Banks said, Oh, let's play two!
I think he meant two hundred years.
In the same ballpark, our diamond, our jewel.
The home of our joy and our fears.
Keeping traditions, and wishes made new,
The place where our grandfathers' fathers they grew.
The spiritual feeling if I ever knew.
And if you ain't been, I am sorry for you.
And when the day comes for that last winning run,
And I'm crying and covered in beer.
I look to the sky and know I was right today.
Someday we'll go all the way.
Yeah, someday we'll go all the way.
Yeah, someday we'll go all the way.
Yeah, someday we'll go all the way.
