

Eddy Antonini, When Water Became Ice

[Musica: Eddy Antonini e Roberto Potenti]

[Testi: Eddy Antonini]

In the darkest night demons came to take me away.
Addicted to the pleasure, masters of our souls.
Dragged into the dark, they decided to show the damage.
Just a little sign arised: water became ice.

Never return to forget what he is burning in that night of fear.
Some drops of pleasure explode on your face and now... are tears.

A lonely man with hate inside another whisky to drink his life.
Around his head, the pain will shine...
He cried! And water became ice.

When water became ice.
