

Eddy Arnold, Come Live With Me And Be My Love

Come live with me and be my love
Come fulfill the dreams my heart's dreaming of
While the turtle dove calls to the mist as April rain falls
Oh come live with me and be my love

Come take my hand and walk with me
Unafraid to face whatever may be
While the wildwoods murmur with the sweetest wind songs of summer
Oh come live with me and be my love

And say to me autumn leaves turned to gold
Stay and hold me in your arms when the world is cold

Come stand with me and be my love
While the candle shine and bells ring above
And forsake me never could be my love forever
Oh come live with me and be my love
