

Eddy Arnold, Little Kid Sister Of Mine

She was only seven
When she was called to Heaven
That little kid sister of mine
We used to play together
In fair and stormy weather
That little kid sister of mine.

They needed a new star up yonder
And they couldn't find
A brighter light to shine
God decided she was meant for
A star and so He sent for
That little kid sister of mine.

They needed a new star up yonder
And they couldn't find
A brighter light to shine
God decided she was meant for
A star and so He sent for
That little kid sister of mine.
