

Eddy Arnold, Shame On You

Shame shame on you shame shame on you
Took my heart as a token when return it was broken
Hide your face shame on you
Shame shame on you shame shame on you
Took my car and my money tell you girl that ain't funny
Darn your hide shame on you
[steel]
Shame shame on you shame shame on you
Ran around with other guys and and try to lie when I got wise
Foolish girl shame on you
Shame shame on you shame shame on you
Took and play your little game you'll find out who was to blame
Hide your face shame on you
[guitar]
Shame shame on you shame shame on you
Can you hold your head up high look your friends right in the eyes
No you can't shame on you no no no shame on you
