

Eddy Arnold, You Still Got A Hold On Me

Though I only see you now and then
It's just enough to break my heart again
Cause you still got a hold on me
It hurts to ask how you've been
And walk away from you like some old friend
Cause you still got a hold on me

Can't help it if I show it don't care who knows it
That you still got a hold on me
It grows stronger everyday it's like you've never gone away
Cause you still got a hold on me
[fiddle]
Can't help it if I show it...
