

Eden's Bridge, Beginning And End

God in the darkness and God in the morning
God in the work and the pain and the play
Lord of all Heaven and Earth&#039;s great creator
God at beginning and end of the day

God in the tiniest infinite detail
God in the nearest and furthest away
Lord of all Heaven and Earth&#039;s great creator
God at beginning and end of the day

I lay down my tears and my hatred
Tear down the curtain of sin
Open my heart and let all that is good enter in

I lay down, my heart is so weary
And gaze on His presence with awe
There&#039;s nothing too small to entrust to the infinite God

God for the humble and meek and bewildered
God for the nearest and furthest away
Lord of all Heaven and Earth&#039;s great creator
God at beginning and end of the day
