

Eden's Bridge, Hear Me, See Me

I stand at the door
Im waiting to see
I call out your name
Will you hear Me?
Ill give you my heart
And all that I am
Ill be there for you
Please believe Me

Look around and see My people
Reaching our for you
Ill send them with a Holy work
Thats spoken just for you

So seek and youll find
The key to your heart
Unlock the door
And release Me

Hear Me, I long for you to hear Me
See Me, I long to see your face
If you say that you dont need Me
Just take a look around
Remember Ill be there
When others let you down
