

Eden's Crush, All My Life

All my life I waited for someone I didn't know
Someone to show me how to love
Unaware that you could be
The one to set me free
Now you're the only one I need and nothing, could ever take this feeling
I don't need a reason to give you my all

CHORUS

I wanna love you all my life
Always to be right by your side
I'll be the shoulder you can lean on
Be all that you needed

BRIDGE

I wanna love you all my life
Stay right beside you for all time
You are the love that I believe in You're all that I needed Hey - yeah - yeah

When I saw you standing there
You didn't seem to care
How could I know you'd be the one
Now I've lost all my control
You came into my soul
With just a kiss you had my heart
And nothing, could ever take this feeling
And I don't need a reason to give you my heart

Whoa .. Yeah

Nothing can come between us
And no matter the distance we'll always be one
Whoa CHORUS/BRIDGE until fade out
