

Edenbridge, Shadowplay

Fly upon a brainchild
With unashamed delight
Bending over backwards day and night

Our world's collapsing
Like a house of cards
A stagey farewell waits without regard

We are hanging in the balance
Are we beyond and remedy?
It was taken out of our hands
And we face a tragedy

Why, why are we here?
On wild soil we roam
And love to call it home
We are vibrant with life
The will to survive
Ways to go astray
In this Shadowplay

Skimming stones on water
Only yesterday
Into cosmic dust we now decay
Kindred souls and spirits
Bound by energy
Who can say what is reality?

Do we flog a dead horse?
Just eternal bliss
Leaves us back to hope for
The former times we miss

We are driven by emotion
And pray the bond won't break
So strong in our devotion
Our being is opaque

Why, why are we here?
On wild soil we roam
And love to call it home
We are vibrant with life
The will to survive
Ways to go astray
In this Shadowplay

I have seen the cascade
The souls between light and shade
Not a drop in the ocean
Forever we
The spirit of infinity

Why, why are we here?
On wild soil we roam
And love to call it home
We are vibrant with life
The will to survive
Ways to go astray
In this Shadowplay