

Edenbridge, The Silent Wake

The prophets in my dream came by again
Transmitting me their master-plan
The future seemed to hold

A dream within a dream of agony
Changes my reality
The secrets I've been told

Feel the sign of the times
Silent Wake
Speak the downwritten rhymes
Silent Wake
Cover my eyes from the force of the glance
The might of the scroll
Silent Wake
It's controlling the will
Silent Wake
Calling me back from the trance (this strongholding trance)

(chorus)
Yesternight a voice was calling miles away from here
Miles away from here
Fading in the silent wake again and again (and again)
Whispering in a tongue so clear in my ear
Of an eternal land (eternal)
Where they could only strand

The prophets came to me in shining light
Their visions of an endless fight
When riot turns to rage

In this intensive sleep I wonder why
The prophecies will verify
In our golden cage

In this powerful sign
Silent Wake
Of a world in decline
Silent Wake
Hoping there's someone who's ruling the maze
Silent Wake
The crossroads in here
Silent Wake
Is there someone to steer
Someone who's saving the blaze (the kingdom of blaze)
