

Edenbrigde, A moment Of Time

farewell

yesterday when we were young like a flower in the desert sand so transient the cycle of life

[chorus]

within a moment of time within a while of a years' decline the brightest of stars above in night-time skies divine here

it is an everflowing stream when they are coming to redeem us from the night
that never sees the day

[chorus]

and when the years passing by noone will answer noone will cry the solace in sea of tears into a new sunshine

[bridge]

glory ascending
from days neverending unfold your dreams right now

[chorus]
