

Edenbrigde, Fly On A Rainbow Dream

[intro-chorus]

fly, forever fly along let your wings just breathe the air tonight to foreign skies fly on a rainbow dream she's straying from reality her imagination leaves her mind like a falcon she is passing her old home she's calling the spirits up there she's freeing herself from clandestine eyes awaiting brightened skies

[pre-chorus]

I will bring this dream to you believe I will lead you everywhere

[chorus]

fly, fly on a rainbow dream just glide into the gleaming sky eternally away from staring eyes
fly, forever fly along
she enters horizons unseen away from the whispers of the night in a reverie she's heading on and on she's passing elysian fields ascending on wings of a glorious ride she feels the falcon's pride

[pre-chorus]

[chorus]

is it stardust of time in these pictures of infinity? all the memories appearing one by one are reflections in me

[b-chorus]

fly, fly, flyspread your wings and touch the sky(high), high, high one more time I face the falcon eye to eye before the rainbow's fading then gold is at the end right on your dream through time forevermore, fly on a rainbow dream
