

Edge Of Dawn, Beauty Lies Within

Everything is crashing down,
Everything is falling apart,
We never wanted to find out,
What it's like to go up in flames,

Now the world is cold and grey,
It's harder to face the truth,
Locked in our minds,

You can't save me,
I can't save you,

Beauty lies within,
Traces deliberately left me out,
Beauty lies within,
Face full of scars,
Poison's leaking into her skin,

I wish we could smell the sea,
I wish I could hold you,
and you would hold me,

In the end,
Far too late,
We asked "what will remain"?
But the world had closed her eyes,
And there's nothing left but pain,

I wish we could smell the sea,
I wish I could hold you,
And you would hold me,

You can't save me,
I can't save you
