

Edge Of Dawn, Chamber Six

What if the soul
Corrupts the heart
And if the child
Corrupts the man

The seal is broken

A graceful sword
Rewards a lie
Face the chance
That you might die

The seal is broken

A graceful sword
Rewards a lie
Face the chance
That you might die

-- Persian female voice (translated)--
When the soul corrupts the heart
And the child corrupts the man
The seal is broken
And the sinners face their trials
Five line of lies
Pervade your life
In chamber six
We close your file

The seal is broken

What if the soul
Corrupts the heart
And if the child
Corrupts the man

The seal is broken

Five line of lies
Pervade your life
A wasted chance
You will die
