

Edge Of Dawn, Kiss Or Kill

A year has passed
The crisis lasts
But you grow stronger
Each day
It's little things you do or say

And what we had
Is fading fast
It's not much longer
I say
And every hope is washed away

To rush out
Or to hold still
Now's the time for us to wonder
Will we kiss or kill

If fate grants us with
A second chance
Will we learn to dance
As one
Or drift into a raging sun

So do we celebrate the dream
We walked away from everything
There's no going back
There's no taking back
Anything
Do we love or do we lose
Everyday we have to choose
Are we losing touch
Does it mean that much
Anyway
