

Edge Of Sanity, Cold Sun (Epidemic Reign, Part

Riffs: Nerberg, Swano

Lyrics: Swano

(03:41)

Gazing at the sky colred with a gelam yet unseen.

Birds no longer fly.

It's not a dream this blinding beam.

(03:42)

Panic, someone realized.

Everything is iced the manic depression of the centuries.

The world is soon devastated

With ease.

(03:43)

The temperature decreases.

Watch the frozen sean, as my pulse go down.

The king has lost its crown.

(03:44)

Cold sun, will never shine

(03:45)

Freezing clouds, ready to fall.

Killing us all.

Time after time I hear prophets that yell,

We've got life for sale.

Children (now) mentally deformed.

Remember the sun and how it warmed.

A natural system is wasted.

Earth saw no grace, dead.

(03:46)

Everything is captured in capsules of ice.

Still I wonder will they all awake in paradise?

Eyes of ice cannot see frozen souls unable too flee.

(03:47)

The maze of my existence, there's no resistance.

Finally I leave this shell, rotting soul, I can feel the smell...

Of hell. Terminal end. Myfinal peace, I descend.

Everything is left to infest, but even the maggots will rest.

Cold sun.

To be continued?
