

Edge Of Sanity, Everlasting (Epidemic Reign, Part III)

Riffs: Swano, Axelsson
Lyrics: Axelsson, Nerberg

Bleeding tears, crying blood a human (being) emotionally odd, hear the sight, feel the sound, spirits call from all around, as I wander closer to what I'll never be a distant light approaches to prove (my) insanity, the shadow pointed its finger, lies caresses my face it tells me it's the bringer of what shall,
what shall end the phase.

Everlasting, unapproachable, neverending, the immortal one always casting shadows on the ground.
A blackened heart that won't stop to pound.
Everlasting, everlasting pane.
Reach the point of no return as our planet slowly burns.
Cracking ground's watchinme as I walk through river hades, and soon my heart is frozen it'll never stop to beat, nothing in this dimension can bring me my defeat, the secrets in your arteries will forever remain unsaid, our sun is slowly dying, never, never to burn red.

you were meant to be another one, time has come, frozenearth, the stillness, the world will come and go
