

Edge Of Sanity, Losing Myself

Losing time
counting hours
I'll never see myself again
And even though I'm alone I can't remember what I'm missing
So I leave it be

Closing down
I expect the hopelessness
and everything
And even though I'm alone
I can't remember what I'm missing and that's all I need

(3.)

I am lost
I feel I am sinking now like I was made of rain
Like a wave I roll into the needless night

(C.)

I am not afraid
as the darkness starts
to make its way
I breathe as hard as you
as I end my day
I sigh and shelter
as I try to sink that dep as dep as you and make sure that I won't fall asleep

Losing days
I Need no hours
I'll never be myself again
And eve though it's killing me
I can't remember what I am missing
so I leave it be.

(5.)

I'm closing down
I expect the hopelessness again tonight
And even though it's killing me
I can't remember what I am missing
But it might be you

(Repeat 3.)

(Repeat C.)

That I won't fall asleep

(Repeat C.)
