

Edge Of Sanity, The Day Of Maturity

Massive nuclear death. Screams of pain and sorrow all has lost its faith, for them there's no tomorrow. Bodies all around, smell of burnt flesh and vomit black and white has turned to grey. Earth of horror and decay Bush and Gorbatojov dead. Humanity has lost its world it's one thing has won? Burial... The day of maturity. Suffocation... The day of dying parents look for their children in masses of gore and bones smell the rancid flesh. The toxic taste is in the air (repeat chorus) Dying the slowly way. Your hunger becomes your decay eating your own flesh, the horrible way you end destroying beyond belief. The day of maturity look what it's done to me. I'm off the edge of sanity. (repeat chorus)
