

Edgewater, Ode To You

Drenched in sweat
From the touch of you
Quivering
What to do?
'Cause you will lead the way
And you will make me sway into you

'Cause I will wait for a chance with you
To lose everything I'm used to
And I catch myself confused

Take a chance
What you got to lose?
Imagining
What I could do
'Cause you will lead the way
And you will make me sway into you

'Cause I will wait for a chance with you
To lose everything I'm used to
And I catch myself induced
Chasing after you

Lay me down
Don't let go
Don't let me drown
I want you to know
I won't give up for anything

Taking me to the breaking point
And you're tired of talk and walk from me
Take a chance and let me breathe
And I'll find a way that you can see

'Cause I will wait for a chance with you
To lose everything I'm used to
And I catch myself confused

'Cause I will wait for a chance with you
To lose everything I'm used to
And I catch myself induced
Chasing after you
