

Edguy, Children Of Steel

I've seen the tears fallin' down like some rain
Hiding from nothing and noone
I feel the bitter pain - feel the bitter pain
Bleedin' for nothing, tortured to be kind Liars with fear will be everything you will leave behind - you'll leave behind

I don't wanna eat it the right is back
I tell you the truth of life
Raise your fuckin' fists and shout: Attack
We will never be to cry

We are back, we are back, we are back
Children Of Steel
We are back, we are back, we are back
Children Of Steel - we have hearts made of stone

Tortured from the teachers, eaten by the system
Chewed from the preachers, target for the guns of society
You changed us to weapons of life I can tell
If you don't like us we'll go back to hell ha ha ha

I don't wanna eat it the right is back
I tell you the truth of life
Raise your fuckin' fists and shout: Attack
We will never be to cry

We are back, we are back, we are back
Children Of Steel
We are back, we are back, we are back
Children Of Steel - we have hearts made of stone

You thought I would cry, would be a child in the night
You did not count on my power, so I stood up to fight - yeah

[Fiddle- & amp; Classic Solo: Ludwig]

I don't wanna eat it the right is back
I tell you the truth of life
Raise your fuckin' fists and shout: Attack
We will never be to cry

We are back, we are back, we are back
Children Of Steel
We are back, we are back, we are back
Children Of Steel

We are back, we are back, we are back
Children Of Steel
We are back, we are back, we are back
Children Of Steel - we have hearts made of stone
