

Edguy, Power And Majesty

I am a sacred king in a sacred kingdom
You know me just as royalty
Lookin' kind so you don't see
I wanna steal your virginity

I was born to feign an angel
The evil knows just how to hide
I sold my soul only to rise
To build up powers that you can't fight

Watch me standing proudly
Till I wake the animal

At night we bite we fight
We are power and majesty
At night we bite we fight
We are power and majesty

I am a master of disguise
And hate to be your marionette
And I won't care if you'll be hangin'
Shut fuckin' up and be my bed

I am a reckless animal
Spitting out a sacred lie
Till you know my perversity
Is to "play" and kill and finally die

Repeat

Bad, ugly and very boring

"Hey baby, I wanna excuse for
My bad habits, close your eyes
I've got a present for you..."
