

Edguy, Power And Majesty (2000 Version)

Im a sacred king in a sacred kingdom
You know me just as royalty
Looking kind so you don't see
Id like to steal your virginity

I was born to feign an angel
The evil knows just how to hide
I sold my soul to rise away
To build up powers that you can't fight

So kind and noble
Till I wake the animal

At night - We flight - We rise
We are power and majesty
At night - We flight - We rise
We are power and majesty

I am a master of disguise
I hate to be your marionette
And I won't care if you'll be hanging
Shut up Come in my bed

I am a reckless animal
Spitting out a flood of lies
Till you know my perversity
Is do it and do it and finally die

Black suite and business,
Till I wake the animal

At night - We flight - We rise
We are power and majesty
At night - We flight - We rise
We are power and majesty

Oh yeah

Rising High Higher and higher
Higher and higher we rise

At night - We flight - We rise
We are power and majesty
At night - We flight - We rise
We are power and majesty
