

Edison Glass, Angelic In Heart

You are a jewel, virtue, treasure.
Angelic in heart, painting grace.

With every passing moment,
I'm falling in love with you.

You're my morning song and evening lullaby.
Your kindness is killing me.
Your soft words will be my ending.

You are the one I love the most.
It's you I'll love forever.
You are the one that I adore.
With your extraordinary love
I'm finding it so easy
To fall in love with you.

This three-strand cord shall not be broken
If Jesus is the center.
And as this ring has no end,
Neither shall my love
