

Edna's Goldfish, Eventually, Anyway

I saw you sitting there
Looking on top of the world
He was holding you like you were his

You didn't see me but,
I was there last night
His arms around you holding you tight
Now I know that you aren't mine

And I'll try... to get a little better
Maybe things can be a little better
Cause I know that you know that things are never gonna change

Was it you or was it me that's making me feel so fucking empty
Like the bottle I drank last night to ease that pain
Without you I'll never be the same

Why are you walking away?
Did I mean that little to you anyway?
Are you forgetting my name?
Will I mean that little to you...
Eventually, anyway
