

Edna's Goldfish, Instant Message

Unplug your phone, we're going out today
Opinionated voices try to lead your head astray
I don't know if you heard
This island's not a world
There's more out there than you and me
And everything that makes me laugh

You should stop wasting your time
You already told me
You should stop wasting your breath
You don't even know me
You should stop wasting my time
You already told me
You should stop wasting your breath
You don't even know me
You don't even know me

Don't try to find me
You'll only be disappointed
You made your speech and now I hope you got just what you wanted
You can't hold everything at once
Make it up it just won't work
I hear you yeah in my ear
Believe me I know it's typical

You should stop wasting your time
You already told me
You should stop wasting your breath
You don't even know me
You should stop wasting my time
You already told me
You should stop wasting your breath
You don't even know me

Stop sending me words that tell me life is so unfair
A second thought about you was something I never spared
Stop sending me words that tell me life is so unfair
A second thought about you was something I never spared

You don't even know me

Unplug your phone, we're going out today
Opinionated voices try to lead your head astray
I don't know if you heard
This island's not a world
There's more out there than you and me
And everything that makes me laugh

You should stop wasting your time
You already told me
You should stop wasting your breath
You don't even know me
You don't even know me
You don't even know me
Cause you'll never know me
Cause you'll never know me
