

Edna's Goldfish, Invincible

What would I say
If it all fell apart today?
What would be left?
I pick myself out of the mess

I got used to the same life all the time
I got used to having no peace of mind
Woke up and there was no where to go
No where to run, no one to turn to

We try so hard so we can be alone
We tried too hard, now everything we worked for has gone wrong

You can't stop me, I want to be invincible
You can't stop me, I want to be invincible
Can it be so simple?
Can it be so simple?
Can it be so simple?

Where would I hide
If my inspiration runs dry?
Who would I be?
Nobody

I got spoiled in the same way
I got used to the same things everyday
Remember you make yourself who you are
Remember you can't go back to being who you were

We try so hard so we can be alone
We tried too hard, now everything we worked for has gone wrong

You can't stop me, I want to be invincible
You can't stop me, I want to be invincible
Can it be so simple?
Can it be so simple?
Can it be so simple?

Headlong into my future
Quiet comfort and easy solutions
I'll pretend not to know
Ignorance... innocence
Headlong into my future
Quiet comfort and easy solutions
Ignorance... innocence

What would I say
If it all fell apart today?
Who would I be?
Nobody

I got spoiled in the same way
I got used to the same things everyday
Remember you make yourself who you are
Remember you can't go back to being who you were

We try so hard so we can be alone
We tried too hard, now everything we worked for has gone wrong

You can't stop me, I want to be invincible
You can't stop me, I want to be invincible
Can it be so simple?
Can it be so simple?
Can it be so simple?

Can it be so simple?