

Ednaswap, Flower

Go deep into yourself
Can't stand to be helped
Some big direction and your confidence melts
It's your fatal flaw
the crack in your sidewalk
A leak has sprung and left you finally at a loss

And with every color showing
That little light colored white still made for the longest night
And with no ember still glowing
Let history repeat its mess
I won't stand in your missteps
You want a flower but you ripped the petals off
You pried it open now the waterfall won't stop
It's no surprise
There's no peace of mind to be bought
You cannot reverse total sensation loss
You're still

Frantically still
Never knew the thrill
Of one spontaneous moment of goodwill oh that fragile charm
Suddenly gone
Set thoughts in motion
Set off the motion of your loss

And with no ember still glowing
I let history repeat its mess
I don't stand in your missteps
You want a flower but you ripped the petals off
Pried it open now the waterfall won't stop
It's no surprise
There's no peace of mind to be bought
You cannot reverse total sensation loss
You lost

[Bridge]

And with no ember still glowing
I let history repeat its mess
I don't stand by my missteps
You want a flower but you ripped the petals off
Pried it open now the waterfall won't stop
It's no surprise
There's no peace of mind to be bought
You cannot reverse total sensation loss
You lost

You made a mess out of everything
I never I would said I would hold your hand
I never said I was over it
