

Edsilia Rombley, On Top Of The World

Ive been trying to let you go,
And I thought I was strong,
But your loves got a hold on me and,
Now I cant move on.
Are we making the same mistake?
Have we learned from the past?
Could this be our second chance, the one thats gonna last?

On top of the world, Im reaching out,
On top of the world, I sing out loud.
Just promise to never break my heart,
Ill give you forever.
On top of the world, just you and I,
So promise to never say goodbye.
Now I know, we are forever more
People may come and go,
But I need you to stay.
Deep within I have always known,
That we would find a way.

On top of the world, Im reaching out
On top of the world, I sing out loud
Just promise to never break my heart,
Ill give you forever.

On top of the world , just you and I.
So promise to never say goodbye.
Now I know, we are forever more.
I know weve tried it all before,
It will be better now Im sure.
Been so blind, you make me see
How strong I am when youre with me.
Say your love is here to stay,
Need you more everyday.
