

Edward, A Piece Of You

Edward on...Moon 69 Child Publishing & Records

You know I see what you've got and you know I want it a lot It won't be long till I'm at your door there's a wind of change coming down Judges are criminals in evening gowns they want everything all the time more and more but I just want a piece of you!
you know it's insane
but it's true what we've got ain't justice at all I know how you're gonna feel and I know how to make it real make your finger hanging around my neck!
because I want a piece of you I would be satisfied with your head not anything in your house I want a piece for what you've done
I lied
I want a piece for what you said
I want a piece of you
