

Edward, Something

I can see Something in your eyes Something like the stars and the wonder of the night skys

I can see something in your face something so pure
I need to embrace
I can feel it in your touch something what I've been missing so much and I want you forever

Your beauty burned a hole in my heart
It was love at first sight Love right from the start

I can hear something in your voice something so true something I need so much
