

Edwin, Let's Dance

Does it feel like it should?
Does it feel like it could?
With the top down, head out your window
Don't let it be misunderstood
Yeah Yeah Yeah
Yeah Yeah Yeah

Who will be your man?
Who will be there then?
'Cause we all know shit happens, let's dance

You can drive through the night
'Till the road's outta sight
Put the top down, hang out the window
Under the shining Northern Lights
Yeah Yeah Yeah
Yeah Yeah Yeah

Who will be your man?
Who will be there then?
'Cause we all know shit happens, let's dance
Let's dance

Sometimes it makes me wonder
We fall like stars we're under
We've made such a wonderful life
When every color is black and white
Everybody is movin on up
Mr. Mayfield never gave up
Everyone that Jesus saves,
There's always some that lose their way
Yeah Yeah Yeah
Yeah Yeah yeah

Does it feel like it should?
Does it feel like it could?
With the top down, head out your window
Don't let it be misunderstood

Who will be your man? (Sometimes it makes me wonder)
