

Edyta Bartosiewicz, Wonderful Tonight

It's late in the evening
She's wonderin' what clothes to wear
She puts on her make-up
And brushes her long blond hair

And then she asks him, "Do I look all right?"
And I say yes, you look wonderful tonight

They go to a party
And everyone turns to see
This beautiful lady
walkin around with him

And then she asks him, "Do you feel all right?"
And he says yes, I feel wonderful tonight

I feel wonderful
Because I see
The love light in your eyes

And the wonder of it all
Is that he doesn't realize
How much he loves her

It's time to go home now
And he's got an achin' head
So he gives her the car keys
And she helps him to bed

And then he tells her
As she turns out the light
He says my darlin',
You were wonderful tonight