

Edyta Górniak, On the Run

My heart is on the run, forever
Following the sun
Reaching for the sky and further
Makes me who I am
I'm always on the run and always
Believe there's something more
I would never say it's over
Faith is what keeps me going

My heart is burning, my heart is burning, burning
My heart is burning, my heart is burning, burning, burning...
My heart is burning, my soul...

My heart is on the run, forever
Looking for a home
Angels guide me to my heaven
When demons take control
I see the world around, it's falling
And justice never wins
Even if the storm is coming
I'll find my way, as long as

My heart is burning, my heart is burning, burning
My heart is burning, my heart is burning, burning
My heart, my soul
As long as, as long as my heart is burning...
My heart, my soul...
My heart is burning