

Eggstone, Can't Come Close Enough

I'm wasting my charm on a girl in a bar wasting your charm just to get her down I'm wasting my time and my money too hey, could I buy another drink on you but she talks about her job and her mother and her dog and her sisters and her clothes and her friends in New York and I just wanna come a little bit closer just a little bit closer well I try so hard to control myself try so hard to control myself but what I'm thinking of right now what I'm thinking of right now is to come just a little bit closer come just a little bit closer
'cause I can't come close enough...
I'm dizzy in my head
I don't care what you say, don't care what you say
I just wanna come, wanna come closer I need someone all the time it seems to be you seems to be everyone you're talking to but what I'm thinking of right now
what I'm thinking of right now
'cause I can't come close enough...
I'm dizzy in my head
I just wanna come, wanna come closer
