

Eggstone, Go Back

and if you leave I'll send you a letter telling you soon
things will be better
and if you stay
don't try to wake me I'd let you down baby I'm bound, I'm bound to sleep and when the morning takes me down what have I got to lose the world won't need me now but I will go out there some day soon and if you join, I wouldn't bother baby belong under my cover don't make me talk
I wouldn't answer
'cause all that I need is to go back, go back to sleep and when the morning takes me down
