

Eggstone, Have You Seen Mary

too many years ago I knew a girl called Mary Mary wasn't hard to get and Mary liked to kiss a lot and Mary used to talk to me but I didn't care to listen now I know I was wrong and I hope that my song will go straight to her mind I hope that I will find her la laj laj laj ... have you seen Mary they said I didn't care enough I said they shouldn't worry 'cause all I had to do was kiss her hand and tell her I am sorry one sunny day we went to the church and as the priest asked her she said yes I do, but now I don't know 'cause I haven't seen her since la laj laj laj laj ...
have you seen Mary
so the next time you see a girl won't you look into her eyes and if they are the saddest eyes you've ever seen won't you ask her if her name is
won't you ask her if her name is
won't you ask her if her name is Mary
