

Eggstone, Ooh Ooh Ma Ma Mine

I couldn't tell her I don't love her any more and I couldn't tell her I don't need her anymore
'cause it's been so long she's done everything alright everythings so good and everythings so fine and when she lets her nightgown fall to the floor I don't really care about love anymore she's alright, she's alright she's good, good, good and she moves so good and when she walks around town all the boys turn around I'm not the bosting kind but I'm the one who made her shine some day I'm gonna tell her we're through I gonna find someone new but until I do
I'm gonna be true
if the sun don't shine
I'm gonna say she's ma, ma mine
I could tell a million lies just to see her close her eyes I'm gonna give her my precious time buy a ring for my last dime
I'm gonna say she's ma, ma mine
ma, ma mine ...
I couldn't tell her I don't love her any more
and I couldn't tell her I don't need her anymore
'cause it's been so long she's done everything alright
everythings so good and everythings so fine
and when she lets her nightgown fall to the floor
I don't really care about love anymore
I'm gonna be true
if the sun don't shine
I'm gonna say she's ma, ma mine
I could tell a million lies
just to see her close her eyes
I'm gonna give her my precious time
buy a ring for my last dime
I'm gonna say she's ma, ma mine
ma, ma mine ...
