

Eggstone, Suffocation At Sea

suffocation at sea
it's such a mystery
she said to me
I could never say no
so I let myself go
suffocation at sea
it's such a mystery
and all that she promised was there and all that I left was broken it's all very fine
now I'm just floating around but one summerday she told me
it's all very fine
suffocation at sea
and all the seacows are looking at me rain has never been here and I've never seen tears
suffocation at sea
it's such a misery, she said to me and all that I paid was all that I longed for
it's all very fine
now I'm just floating around
it's all very fine
