

Ego Likeness, The Ocean Beside Us

As far away as I can see
You are in my memory
Time has changed us both my dear
Time has led us through our fear
I remember parts of you
In things you say and things you do
I pray you remember me
Despite your deep uncertainty
And I will not be afraid
even though we're not the same
One day you will know
One day you will know
I dreamed I found you by the sea
Wondering who you used to be
You were waiting for the storm
To sweep away your fears from shore
And I will not be afraid
even though we're not the same
One day you will know
One day you will know
Far away, you bring me home
I taught you lessons I had known
I knew you had so much to give
So many lives you'd need to live
And I will not be afraid...
I dreamed I found you by the sea
Wondering who you used to be
But one day you will know
I promise you
One day you will know...
